Bangor, Sept. 20, 1875. eTu3wF

To the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the first Tuesday of April, 1875.

The undersigned, a resident of Bangor, libels and informs this Honorable Court that she was married to Charles F. Bump, of said Bangor, on the 30th day of January, 1872, by a Justice of the Peace, and that ever since she has behaved herself as a faithful wife, but that said libelee, unmindful of his marital obligations has, since their marriage, contracted habits of intemperance and become a common drunkard, and for the last year has spent what he earned for liquor, compelling her to support herself. She further says that he has within the last year deserted her, going to parts unknown as she believes, without the State, and that she has made reasonable diligence to ascertain his residence but cannot. She therefore prays that the bonds of matrimony existing between them may be dissolved and a divorce decreed. Dated this 14th day of June, 1875. GEORGIANNA BUMP.

Penobscot ss. June 14, 1875. Before me came the above signed Georgianna Bump and made oath to the allegation above, that she has made reasonable diligence to ascertain the libelee's residence, but could not.

THE STATE FAIR.

OPENING ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT PRINCE.

The following address was delivered by Hon. Rufus Prince, of Turner, at the opening of the Fair of the State Agricultural Society at Presumpscot Park, Portland, Tuesday Sep. 21.

BROTHER FARMERS.—The cold winds that occasionally come sweeping down upon us from the North, the variegated foliage, the crimsoned leaf, the absence of the feathered songsters with many other unmistakable signs remind us that another season is near its close and that the fruits of the husbandman will soon be garnered.

The season now drawing to a close has been in many respects a favorable one. Earth has not withheld a good increase, our barns and granaries are well filled and well directed labor has been well rewarded, and we have many reasons to come to this our festal occasion with thankful hearts and bright hopes for the future. While in many sections of not only our own but foreign countries the fruits of the toil of years have been swept away by devastating floods we have reason to rejoice in bountiful harvests.

History teaches us that the degeneracy of a people is sure to follow the neglect of agriculture, hence we should study to check the impoverishing system that exists to a greater or less extent in all sections of our country, and instead encourage a system of gradual development and improvement, seeking to clothe the earth with the fruits that have been so generously furnished us by an all wise Creator, endeavoring to rise to a higher level by educating ourselves and children in the science of agriculture, by studying and teaching the beauties of nature, deploring ignorance and endeavoring to honor ourselves and our calling by more intelligent labor.

To become successful farmers we must be educated in our vocation, not mere theorists, but educated to the practical duties of life—looking carefully into everything intended to promote the interests of our profession, ever keeping in mind that a successful farmer must be a progressive one.

Let us not fear labor, for it is not a curse except to those who make it such. It is necessary for the development of our systems, either mental or physical. Still we should ever keep in mind the fact that labor unaccompanied by high and noble thoughts, by a desire for improvement, becomes drudgery; hence we should endeavor to invest our occupation with dignity and importance, teaching our children to fulfil the true and noble purposes of life—that failure lies not so much in locality as in the people themselves. We should endeavor to have a fixed purpose, and aim to do well what we undertake; and if great results are not within our reach be content with such as lie within compass. If our ability and capital will not warrant us in engaging in farming on an extensive scale, let us be satisfied with more moderate possessions, recollecting that small but fertile farms, under the direction of intelligent labor, not only make much more ample returns than where much more is attempted than can be well accomplished, but is much more pleasing to the eye and satisfying to the intelligent mind.

Let us not scorn the opportunity for small but sure gains for the doubtful prospect of greater ones, nor have an over desire for wealth, forgetting the true and noble purposes of life. Above all things let us honor our profession, with progress for our watchword, experimenting carefully, and not overtasking our physical to the neglect of our mental and moral systems—study that our physical energies may be directed by a well cultivated mind, ever keeping in view the fact that life is at least in a great measure either mentally or intellectually what we make it. Good seed whether committed to a well cultivated field or a well stored mind will bring forth a bountiful harvest. Ever keep in mind that we harvest what we sow.

Brother farmers of Maine, complain not of your lot, but recollect that industry and economy should be a principal, not a necessity, for compare your lot cultivating, going over rugged hills, doing your part in building up a virtuous, industrious and intelligent people, with those of the favored Equatorial climes where nature's productions are spontaneous, where the inhabitants become even too indolent to clothe themselves, living in idleness and ignorance.

Let us thoroughly exercise all the faculties with which we are endowed, and although we may not achieve great results, nor amass great fortunes, and roll in gorgeous luxury, neither shall we be oppressed by poverty and want.

It has been well said that amid all that is bright and beautiful in nature, there is nothing that blooms with such unfading colors, there is no perfume on the earth fraught with such fragrance, as the flowers of good works. And, brother farmers, keeping this in view, let us in every department of our life's great Fair make the best possible exhibition, that at its close we may have the unbounded satisfaction that we shall receive the first prize from an all wise Judge whose judgment never errs.

THE SHEEP.

The Press says the display of sheep is one of the best ever seen at a state fair, both in fine and coarse wool varieties. Somerset county famous for wool growing, furnishes nearly all of the merino or fine wooled sheep. S. W. Tinkham, John M. Hilton and W. W. Pease, all of Anson, exhibit large flocks of that variety. E. S. Ladd of Starks, J. B. Gilman of Farmington Falls, and Abraham Bicker of West Waterville also contribute flocks of fine wool sheep.

Dr. Boutelle of Waterville, C. D. Tuck of Farmington, G. E. Shores of Waterville, H. C. Burleigh of Fairfield, and Dan Fulton of Bowdoinham exhibited flocks of South Down or middle wooled sheep. The Cotswolds, representing the long wooled sheep, were well represented. Gen. Tilton of Togus exhibited a fine flock. Warren Percival of Vassalboro' shows some fine specimens, and Mr. Anderson of Warren a few fine specimens. The flock of Col. Mattocks attracted particular attention. Col. Mattocks has the largest flock of sheep in the county, numbering upwards of 130. He has on exhibition, but not for competition, a Cotswold imported buck, ... years old which has weighed 44... ... which he sheared 20 lbs ... last spring. He exhibits a ... buck, two years old ... tocks ... but ... either ... sold ...

THE FRENCH-CANADIAN CIVAL AND ECCLESIASTICAL SYSTEM.

A French-Canadian born and brought up in the Roman Catholic faith writes a letter on the Guibord case to the Toronto Globe, in the course of which he casts a great deal of light on the civil and ecclesiastical system of Old Lower Canada. He freely admits that the Privy Council have nothing to do with such matters as the right of sepulture in Ontario, herein agreeing with Archbishop Lynch; but he shows how different is the system in Quebec. He shows also that the French Press place the ecclesiastical law on the footing of Divine authority, and holds that civil laws are subject to the ecclesiastical. He writes:

I strongly sympathise with Mr. Doutre and the Institute Canadian, yet I will unhesitatingly own it to be monstrous that a civil tribunal should have power to take cognizance of such matters, whether, for instance, a man has or has not been cut off from the Church, as was the main discussion before the Privy Council.

With equal sincerity, Archbishop Lynch ought to tell the Protestants of Ontario that the Privy Council had that power, because at the time of the conquest there was a concordat between the Pope and King of France, and that, thanks to the efforts of the Roman Catholic clergy, that concordat is still in full force in the Province of Quebec.

Archbishop Lynch ought to tell the Protestants of Ontario that the French Canadian Liberals have many a time endeavored to have that concordat abolished and that at and for every attempt they have been crushed down by the Roman Catholic clergy, and denounced as enemies of their Church and their country.

Archbishop Lynch ought to tell the Protestants of Ontario that concordat permits the Roman Catholic clergy to ask the aim of judicial authority for the enforcement of their decrees.

Archbishop Lynch ought to tell the Protestants of Ontario that every day the Roman Catholic priest can come, and does come, into Court to have a member of his Church condemned to pay him tithes, that he can even levy a tax upon every inch of real estate owned by his parishioners, and in default of payment have it knocked down under the sheriff's hammer.

If, therefore, in all conflicts between the priest and a member of his Church the priest can call to his aid the authority of civil tribunals to have his rights or pretensions enforced, will not Archbishop Lynch tell the Protestants of Ontario that the members of the Church can also have the protection of the law for the enforcement of his pretentions?

It will look like justice to every Protestant in Ontario that whoever can sue can be sued; that if the priest can use the civil tribunal to be paid by his parishoner the parishoner can use the same authority to be buried by the priest.

It is not for the idle pleasure of having the remains of Guibord buried in consecrated ground that Mr. Doutre and his friends have persistently fought during the last six years to have that right sanctioned by the civil law.

Guibord's friends have all their life denounced all connection between Church and State; they have constantly deprecated the interference of civil authority in ecclesiastical matters, or the interference ecclesiastical authorities in civil matters, they many a time, demanded the abolition of the concordat.

For their opinions and their actions they have been branded by the clergy as dangerous men, and held up to hatred and the fear of their countrymen.

Now, the friends of Guibord are using in his favor that power which the concordat gives to civil tribunals to interfere in ecclesiastical matters; how, then, in the name of common sense, can the clergy complain? What has Archbishop Lynch to answer for that?

I will venture to say to Archbishop Lynch, that if his colleagues in this Province will surrender their privilege to have decrees enforced by the judicial authority of the land, the burying of Guibord's remains in consecrated ground will be at once gladly given up. But the Roman Catholic clergy will do nothing of the kind. They have the power of using judical authority to their own ends, and that power they will retain at all costs and hazards; at the same time whenever it will be sought to make them amenable to the law they will assert that their power is superior to the law.

In Protestant Ontario Archbishop Lynch says that the decree interferes with the liberty of the Church, but in Roman Catholic Quebec Bishop Bourget says that the decree interferes with the authority of the Church. The readers of The Globe have heard the language of the Archbishop; let them now hear the language of the Bishop. I quote from one of the Bishop's organs Le Franc Parleur, of the 8th inst. It says:—

"Authority is one; when it is not acknowledged in the Church, it is destroyed every where.

"The Privy Council of England may pronounce sentence upon sentence, and render decree upon decree; all the Parliaments in the world may vote laws to the same effect; all these sentences, all these decrees, all these laws shall be clearly null and void ... ... justice, and if they ... authority of the Church. ...

perior to all other laws, and whenever civil law is in opposition to one of them, it is no more a law, though it may still retain the name of law, it is a violation of right, a criminal usurpation of power. Let no one, therefore, tell us about that case of Guibord which is to be a posit in earth, that we must respect the sentence rendered by the Privy Council, that sentence deserves no respect, to respect it would even be wrong. We may, we even should suffer it to be executed, in order to prevent a greater evil but to look upon it as producing an obligation, never never."

Such are the sentiments of the Bishop's organ, and these words are written by one of his priests. It is evident from these words, that the aim of the Church in the Province of Quebec is not to be free as Archbishop Lynch would have the Protestants of Ontario believe it, but to rule—govern. The ecclesiastical authority above every other authority.

THE AROOSTOOK VOTE.

In publishing a few days since, the official returns, so far as received at Augusta at that time, the footing of the votes in all the towns in Aroostook officially heard from was 1872 for Connor and 1424 for Roberts. The Bangor Commercial was terribly incensed because we did not give the returns from Mr Madigan's Madawaska hunting grounds, from which no information had been received, but we did not choose to insert guess-work among tables of official returns. We do not know whether the always lagging Madawaska returns have yet been received at Augusta ... none of the Aroostook papers have yet published the complete vote of that County. MILITARY REUNIONS. The reunion of the members of the Maine Light Artillery organizations of the late war was held in Portland Monday afternoon, at the Hall of Bosworth Post. The meeting was called to order by Col A. W. Bradbury, who made some very eloquent remarks upon the service rendered by the Artillery of Maine, after which he nominated Gen James A. Hall, of Damariscotta, to preside over the meeting. The following officers were elected: President, Gen. James A. Hall; Vice-President, H. E. LaFollette; Historian, H. F. Eaton; Orator, A. W. Bradbury. The different batteries of artillery were well represented and the session was very interesting. A meeting also held in the evening, in the interest of the proposed reunion of all Maine soldiers next year, was attended by representatives from nearly all the regimental associations. A temporary organization was affected, Col T. A. Roberts being chosen as Chairman and Henry C Houston Secretary. It was voted to meet again at the same place on Tuesday evening October 26th, to perfect a permanent organization, and make arrangements for the necessary details of the affair.

The New York Tribune says that its review of the fall trade prospects is much more encouraging than there was reason to anticipate a month or two ago. In all departments there is a fair activity with better promise, while in some business is more stable and better than at any time since the panic. Early as it is the improvement upon the trade of last fall is very marked.

ALLEN INTERVIEWED

HE BELIEVES INFLATION WILL CONTROL THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION—HIS NOTION OF GREENBACKS AND REPUDIATION

A special correspondent at Toledo writes the N. Y. Tribune of a recent interview with Gov Allen, of Ohio, of which that paper says: "In the Toledo letter which we print to-day there are some significant expressions of opinion from the Rag-Money candidate for Governor of Ohio. There has been a good deal of discussion among Democrats as well as Republicans as to the probable effect of a Democratic victory in Ohio upon the position of that party in the Presidential campaign of next year. Gov. Allen has no hesitation in saying what he thinks about it. His election would ensure the nomination of a Western man for President and the ratification of the financial plank of the Ohio platform by the National Convention. This outspoken declaration should open the eyes of those honest but misguided Democrats who believe they can lend aid and comfort to the Rag-Money crowd in Ohio without imperiling the cause of hard money in the country at large. It is also significant that Gov. Allen places himself squarely upon the Pennsylvania style of inflation platform and hugs the Bundle dollar to his heart. On the whole, his brief talk with our correspondent is one of the most interesting contributions to the literature of this campaign." The correspondent details a portion of the interview as follows:

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

I asked him if he thought it probable that the Ohio financial platform would become the platform of the National Convention and if so, if it would carry the country. He said undoubtedly that platform would be adopted and unless there should be an unexpected revival of business it would succeed. The party in power was always held responsible for business depression, thus in 1840 Martin Van Buren had to suffer and the Democratic party was defeated by the banks suspending specie payments but their discounts although Van Buren had nothing on earth to do with the prostration of business. I asked him if he should be elected, and the New-York Democrats should also succeed what would be the effect on the National Convention. He said the nominee would be a Western man and the platform the Ohio platform, there would be no break in the party, for all their differences would be harmonized before the holding of the Convention—they always were—and New York would have to and would agree to that disposition of the matter.

Correspondent—Supposing you are successful in the country, is it proposed to pay the bonds in greenbacks?

Gov Allen—The bondholders are their own worst enemies. They are continually forcing such issues as the payment in gold and insisting on the danger of repudiation so as to get a hold on Congress and have legislation shaped to serve their ends.

Q—But do you think the bonds will be paid in greenbacks?

Gov Allen—Of course much of our future action will depend upon circumstances as we then find them.

Q—Do you think the payment of those gold bonds in greenbacks would be repudiation.

Gov Allen—Repudiation of an act of Congress, certainly.

Q—Would you call such a repudiation an act of bad faith?

Gov Allen—There was no good faith in the passage by Congress of that act of 1869.

Q—Well, if that act was not an act of good faith would it be bad faith to repeal it?

Gov Allen—No.

Q—Well Governor, what is your idea about issuing more greenbacks? Is there to be a limit to it? In other words, do you think greenbacks can be used as the permanent currency and the measure of value?

Gov Allen—I know no better currency or measure of value than the dollar based upon the credit and the property of this great nation.

Q—Then do you agree with the Pennsylvania Democratic platform with reference to the nature and definition of the dollar?

Gov Allen—Yes yes.

I give this in conversational form, as nearly as I can recollect it (and I am sure it is the substance of the conversation), so that by any summary of this remarkable expression of Gov. Allen's views I may not seem to have done him justice. I say remarkable because until the meeting of the Columbus Convention the Governor was generally believed to be a hard money man.

A CHARGE REPELLED.

HURRICANE ISLAND, Sept 23, 1875

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

The Commercial in its issue of the 20th inst. pays its compliments to our Island, on account of its vote at the recent election. Its remarks are based upon a very incorrect report of a speech delivered previous to election by Gen Davis Tillson. I listened to the remarks of Gen Tillson on the occasion referred to, and know that he neither directly nor indirectly intimated that his employes would be discharged from the work if they did not vote in accordance with their wishes. On the contrary he did say that no man would be discharged on account of his vote. I further assert that no threats were employed by any Government official and that our vote so unsatisfactory to the Democrats, was the result of influences entirely legitimate.

The statement that the vote of last year was Democratic, is also erroneous. By act of the Legislature passed last winter Hurricane Island, belonging to the town of Vinalhaven, was made a voting precinct or borough as the Commercial styles it, and spells it. Heretofore, our voters have been compelled to go to Carver's Harbor, a distance of three miles, at much inconvenience and the loss of a day's time, where their vote has been cast with that of the voters of the Harbor. It is, however, well-known that "the voters and workmen on Hurricane Island" voted the Republican ticket "last year, by a very heavy majority."

The "information" upon which the Commercial bases its reflections is derived from the Rockland Opinion, a paper which has shown itself unfriendly to the granite interests of the State, and which is so unfortunate as to have correspondents upon the islands where the most important works are located, whose statements are rarely worthy of credence.

A VOTER.

It is a settled fact that people who ... to buy goods read the advertisements ... more attention in quiet times than ...

When dollars come easier. And this the advertising firms that give the bargains, have life and get the popular dollar. The best and most persistent advertisers in Boston and New York are such firms as Jordan, Marsh & Co., and Stewart. Ask them if it pays.—Ex.

FACTS ABOUT SHOEING HORSES.

A writer in the New York Herald states some facts about how horses should be shod, which are worthy the consideration of blacksmiths and farmers as well. Most of the horse-shoers of the country prepare the foot, fit a shoe, and secure it to the hoof in the same manner that a wood-butcher fits a shoe to an old ox-sled. The mechanism of a horse's hoof is one of the most wonderful and ingenious structures that can be found in all the works of the Creator. Beneath and in the rear of every hoof there is a frog, which is a tough and elastic pad for preventing injury to the animal whenever he plants his foot suddenly on any hard substance. Large rolls or cylinders of India-rubber are placed beneath railroad cars to prevent injury to any part of the car or to the cargo with which it is loaded. The frog beneath the foot of a horse is designed to subserve a similar purpose. But the manner in which most horses are shod lifts them up, as it were on short stiles, so that the frog cannot perform its appropriate functions. If we look carefully at the young horse when he is trotting or running, it will be perceived that every foot is brought down to the ground in such a manner that the frog receives a powerful blow. By this means all injury is prevented. Science teaches us to permit the frog to develop and expand downward. But most blacksmiths seem to think that the All-wise Creator made a great mistake when he formed the hoofs of horses. Hence they fall at the frog with red hot burning-irons with edge tools, and with any other appliance that will enable them to remove this extraneous excrescence. Illustrious ninnies! Why not shave and burn away all the tough, callous adipose tissue beneath their own heels, and allow the bare bones to rest on a plate of iron inside of their own boots and shoes?

The fact that there is not a Democrat in the State of Maine whom any one thinks of comparing in intellectual ability with the Hon James G Blaine, does not set well upon the average Democratic stomach. They know that as long as Blaine is about, their political tribulations will continue, Pillsbury and other gad flies seek to cause him annoyance, but he will keep right on about his business regardless of their puny attacks.—Dexter Gazette.

The man Schell, arrested for ravishing and murdering a young lady at Bells Fontaine Ohio Thursday, was hung at 12 30 this morning, by a mob of three hundred men who broke into and took him out of the jail for the purpose.

The ward caucuses in New Bedford last evening were largely attended. Three delegates were elected from each ward. They are in favor of Rice, but go unpledged and uninstructed.

Mrs Mary Cook, of South Boston, was run over and instantly killed, near Somerville station on the Boston and Fitchburg railroad yesterday.

The damage at San Antonio is confined to vegetation. All traces of the storm are being obliterated in Houston, and the city wears a cheerful aspect. Trade is improving. Passengers who left San Antonio Saturday report that from West Bernard to within 15 miles of the Brazos the destruction was terrible. The Brazos bottom looks as if a thousand wood cutters had been felling trees for months. The party was four days in getting from Kingsbury. THE INDIAN COUNCIL.
Only a Few Indians Present—Dissensions in the Councils—The Prospect Unfavorable to a Treaty.

CROW BUTTE COUNCIL, Sept 23—Via Fort Laramie Wy T Sept 23. The Commissioners met on the Council Grounds this morning. Only a few Indians were present. Since the proposition to leave the Hills was made Monday, bitter dissensions have arisen among the chiefs who have been in council day and night. Some do not want to sell; others favor a lease; and others are willing to sell, but at exorbitant figures. To-day Spotted Tail did not meet the Council. He and his men were in council and could not come. The Uncapapa, Minneconjou, Cheyenne, Arapahoe, Black Feet and Ogalalla chiefs were on the ground but did not go into the Council. The last four tribes had a long consultation on the question of unity, at which Red Dog, Red Cloud and others spoke. The conclusion reached was that they must counsel more together. To-night a great feast is being held in the Ogalalla camp and much is expected from it. Spotted Tail's men are divided. Red Cloud and 'Young Man Afraid of His Horses' hold their band as a unit. The Minneconjous are divided, but the rest generally favor a lease. The Young Crow Indians make the most opposition, threatening war if a lease is made. The prospect to-night is not favorable to any treaty. If the plan of leasing the Black Hills country fails the Commission will propose buying at a rate not to exceed $6,000,000, paid in annuities and charged to the general support account with these Indians. The Commission will go to the Council Ground several more mornings, then if this fool's play continues the camp will be removed to the Agency and the Council held there or not at all. The want of presents for the Indians, which never occurred before, is a serious detriment now. The Commission has no power from Commissioner Smith to give anything.

Shooting Matches.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

I saw an item from your Medway correspondent in the Daily of the 17th inst., which reads thus "A party of 40 men will have a shooting match in this place the 1st day of October. The side that gets the most game will have the pleasure of sitting down to a $40 supper, free gratis, at the Boarding House of Hon. Geo. Cutler."

Now that reads very well and probably no one of the "forty" have reflected on the great amount of suffering that will be caused by this proposed promiscuous wholesale slaughter of the innocent and harmless creatures, created by an all wise and good God, and for a purpose not fully understood; for the best good of the human race. I would refer these gentlemen to the report of the Secretary of the Society for the Protection of Cruelty to Animals, published in 1874 in this city. I earnestly hope that after these gentlemen who have arranged for this "match" and "supper" have properly considered the subject, they will conclude to have a spelling match, or something else that will afford equal amusement and secure quite as good a supper that will be partaken of without the reflection that it was obtained at the expense of so much life, and suffering of those who shall be maimed and not killed outright. A dancing school is in progress at Brewer.

The Freshman class at Orono numbers thirty-nine.

There were very few inmates at the Police Station last night.

There are very few entertainments booked for Bangor this fall.

The passenger trains from and to Boston last night were heavily loaded.

There will be no preaching at the Essex-st school house to-morrow afternoon.

There were thirty-one arrivals and twelve clearances at this port yesterday.

The weather was more comfortable yesterday than it has been for some time.

A large number of vessels are now receiving repairs at the ship yards in Brewer.

There will be a Sabbath School Concert at the West Bangor Chapel to-morrow evening.

Leavitt will sell a fine lot of furniture at his auction rooms this morning at 10 o'clock.

The barque which has been receiving repairs at Oakes' yard in Brewer, will soon be ready for sea. Her masts are now being put in place.

The Hutchinson boy who escaped from the Jail Work-shop has not been recaptured as yet, but strenuous efforts are being made to catch him, and a reward of $25 has been offered for his capture. The price of tickets will be arranged so that good seats can be secured at 50, 35 or 25 cents for single sessions, and from one to two dollars for the whole course, twelve sessions. The sessions of the association are always pleasant and profitable, and the public do a good service to the cause of music by encouraging them.

THE SCHOONER BRUTUS. It is feared that the crew of the schooner Brutus were all lost in the gale of Friday night, the 17th instant, as the schooner Henry Crosby, Captain Saunders passed her that evening about 9 o'clock, some four miles southwest of Boon Island. The Crosby passed under the lee of the Brutus within about forty rods of her, and she appeared to be partly full of water, and as it was bright moonlight, Captain Saunders could plainly see five men standing upon her deck, who were making signals, shouting and blowing their fog horn, but he could not heave to, or render them any assistance, as it was very rough, the wind blowing heavily from the WNW, his vessel being disabled by the loss of her mainsail. The Brutus hailed from Islesboro' and was mostly owned by Captain Babbidge, who commanded her.

TO HOUSEKEEPERS. The attention of heads of families is respectfully invited to the superior quality of Burnett's Flavoring Extracts. They are entirely free from the poisonous oils and acids which enter into the composition of many of the factitious fruit flavors now in the market. They are highly concentrated, have all the freshness and delicacy of the fruits from which they are prepared, and are less expensive.—Meats, Soups, etc., may be greatly improved by Burnett's Extract of Celery. sep25 1t

MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for thirty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. The animal body is made up entirely of substances primarily derived from inorganic nature, the rocks, the water and the air. Natural forces, light, heat, electricity and time, in their process of reduction, carry us through the grand procession of their changes, from the inorganic to the organic state.

The miracle of vitality is sustained by the compounding by nature (as above) of the tissues, which are wasted in the ordinary nervous and muscular operations of thinking and acting.

And in proportion to the capacity of the animal economy for restoring the waste, is the being preserved in health and strength.

The ingredients wasted by thought or action, are identical with those of which Fellows' Hypophosphites are composed, the ability of this preparation to furnish the restoring capacity, and its power of sustaining and increasing vitality in the subject, enables him to combat and overcome disease, and so to lengthen his days. d tw sep24

To the weak, the worn and the weary the editor of the Boston Recorder says:—"We can most unhesitatingly recommend the Peruvian Syrup, a protected solution of the protoxide of iron, to all the weak, the worn and the weary, having richly experienced its benefit. It possesses all the qualities claimed for it by its proprietors." d&w1w sep24

FROGS AT SCHOOL.

BY GEORGE COOPER.

Twenty froggies went to school,
Down beside a rushy pool
Twenty little coats of green,
Twenty vests all white and clean.
"We must be in time," said they,
First we study, then we play,
That is how we keep the rule,
When we froggies go to school.

Master Bullfrog, grave and stern,
Called the classes in their turn
Taught them how to nobly strive
Likewise how to leap and dive,
From his seat upon a log,
Showed them how to say "kerchog!"
Also how to dodge a blow
From the sticks which bad boys throw

Twenty froggies grew up fast,
Bullfrogs they became at last,
Not one dunce among the lot,
Not one lesson they forgot,
Polished in a high degree,
As each froggie ought to be,
Now they sit on other logs,
Teaching other little frogs

THE CATHOLIC ISSUES.

[From the Providence Journal.]

A very brief and plain recital of the facts in two cases now at issue between the Bishop of the Diocese of Montreal and the civil authority of the Dominion, will perhaps prove interesting as a study of the signs of the times. In the first case Guibord, a Catholic, died in the faith, six years ago. But as he was a member of a society obnoxious to the clergy, he was refused burial in consecrated ground, he owning a lot in the cemetery in which it was proposed to bury him. SEA CAPTAIN CURED

—of—

RHEUMATISM.

HE GRINS WITH JOY.

... Mass., June 15, 1875

PROF. ALPHONSE HILLER

DEAR SIR:—For the illustration of bounty suffering I feel it my duty to write ... the following ... The past spring I was very afflicted with Sciatic Rheumatism, suffering night after night and all day ... the most excruciating pain I ever knew. My doctor who ... thirty years ... that medicine would ... me ... would not help me ... weeks it might ... I must grin and bear it. But I was not disposed to do so, and in my desperation I sent ... article, which under the name of Quack or Patent Medicine, or any other remedy, promised relief. It happened that this was the obtained at No. 38 Hanover st., Boston, the statements accompanying directions secured reasons ... the third bottle I was sensible that I was gaining powerfully and favorably, and ... the fourth bottle, my pain had passed ... occasion to grin with joy ...

Yours respectfully,

WM. D. PHILIPS

... GOODWIN & CO.

... Hanover street

Mr. Philips is a gentleman well and favorably known ... the past forty ... by our shipping merchants as one of the most successful captains sailing from the port of Boston. This testimony is ... than volumes could express of the great merits of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure.

This medicine is prepared by a careful, experienced physician in obedience to the ... numberless friends in the profession ... and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the medicine in the highest state of purity and development and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

In simple cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy, hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely as it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all druggists through out the United States and Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to any of the wholesale druggists in Boston, Concord, N. H., Worcester, Providence, Portland, Bangor and other places

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carriers' Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7 to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window, when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office, and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $33.60 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE

All letters must be Pre paid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate; City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS.

After January 1st, 1875, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week; less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, and papers coming to this office, if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

ADVERTISED LETTERS

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to Washington.
